

Philosophy of the Design

The design is inspired by the famous Taipei 101 building. It was said to be the tallest building in 2011. Now, it is the major sightseeing station in Taipei. It is said to be the major tourist attraction because of its classic design of a bamboo structure.

The logo has traced its shape so that people can recognize the place of the conference by seeing at the logo. The logo represents Taipei and its people.