

About the design

I have no philosophy that I would like to translate into my reflections on Asia and Opensuse.

In the background I have a robot lotus flower, a Japanese Gate and a soft hexagon silhouette to symbolize the stability of Opensuse.

The front logo is classically covered with the original Suse head created with Inkscape .

I have given my best I hope you like it

Regards

Durim Berisha