Logo Explanation

Luhur Uluwatu Temple or Uluwatu Temple is a temple located in the area of Pecatu Village, Kuta District, Badung.

The temple which is located on the southwestern tip of the island of Bali on a steep and high rock platform and juts into the sea is a Sad Kayangan Temple which is believed by Hindus to be a buffer for 9 winds. This temple was originally used as a place of worship for an 11th-century holy priest named Empu Kuturan. He lowered the teachings of the Adat Village with all its rules. This temple is very famous and be one of some iconic place in Bali

Aun-Aun Maperanak is one of the distinctive features that are part of the cultural treasures of the Balinese people. This style represents a solid unity (tendrils of trees, waves, and people) that are solid. This motif is usually combined with the Sari Flower motif (flower crown).
